Business Experience

Frank McCleneghan, Office Specialist, is a native Charlottean, and as such, has developed many long-lasting relationships with decision makers in the Charlotte business community. Since starting his real estate career in 1984, Frank has focused on office leasing and sales as well as tenant representation. Recently, Frank added investment sales and land assemblage to his real estate expertise resume.

Over the past fifteen months, along with Scott Hensley also of Piedmont Properties, Frank has been marketing an office warehouse project in South Charlotte. The project consists of twenty-one units totaling 52,000 square feet. To date Frank and Scott have leased and/or sold over fifty percent with only nine units remaining.
